●Aim of the Course This course aims to provide a basic knowledge of Japanese which will enable students to function effectively in everyday life.
●Course Prerequisites Prerequisite subjects for this course are Integrated Japanese 1 and Japanese Language Seminar (Communication) 1. Those who register for this course should also register for the Japanese Language Seminar (Communication) 2 in the same semester.
●Course Content ①Students will learn comprehensive Japanese, necessary to live both on and off campus. Each lesson will cover new grammar, expressions and vocabulary (including Hiragana, Katakana and Kanji). A short test will be given each lesson. ②Students are required to read textbooks (especially "Elementary Japanese 2 DAICHI Translation of the Main Text and Grammar Notes") as preparation for each lesson.
●Course Evaluation Methods Attendance 30%, Class Participation 30%, Mid-term Examination and Final examination 40%
●Notice for Students Students must maintain course attendance rates of 80% or higher and are required to take mid-term and final examination. Those who fail to meet these requirements will not earn credits. Students are not permitted to withdraw from this course for any reason after the registration. In general, in the case of absence, make-up tests and examinations will not be possible (except in the case of extenuating circumstances). Three late arrivals or early departures of 15 minutes or more will be regarded as a one-lesson absence.

Aichi Prefecture's Importance in Japanese History, Literature, Culture, and the Future
●Aim of the Course What is Nagoya famous for? Why is Nagoya important? Why is Toyota located in Aichi Prefecture? To answer these questions join this class! Students will learn about the impact Nagoya and Aichi Prefecture have had on Japanese history, literature, and culture. The purpose of this course is for students to learn skills that they will need for major courses during their later years of university. First, students will learn more about the library services on campus and how to find materials. Second, students will evaluate texts: is the text outdated? Is the text biased? Is the text accurate? Third, students will use the knowledge that they gained from reading to produce original content. Fourth, students will both give and receive feedback on their work and learn how to improve. ●Course Prerequisites None ●Course Content List of Topics to be covered: 1) Atsuta Shrine: Why is the Kusanagi Sword in Nagoya? 2) Aichi inspiring poetry and legends 3) The Tales of Ise and Chiryu 4) National Treasures in Nagoya: The Tale of Genji Picture Scrolls 5) Osu Kannon and Oda Nobunaga 6) Edo Brand Awareness: Arimatsu Shibori Dying 7) The Birth of Toyota: What do sewing machines have to do with it? 8) Nagoya: Pilgrimage Site for Anime Fans ●Course Evaluation Methods Attendance and Participation: 30%, Weekly Assignments: 20%, Class Discussion Leader: 20%, Final Paper 20%. ●Notice for Student None

●Aim of the Course This course aims to educate students in the social sciences and humanities about current social, economic and political issues facing Japan, as well as to foster critical inquiry, analysis and debate. Rather than a traditional lecture, this course will be a student-centered, academic simulation of the Japanese House of Representatives (lower house of the National Diet), or Model Diet. Each student participant will be expected to role-play as a legislator, according to an assigned party affiliation and background profile. Student responsibilities will include researching select domestic or foreign relations issues, working in pairs to prepare and present six brief position papers, engaging in debate over proposed bills, voting on bills, and finally, reporting to constituents.
●Course Prerequisites First Year Seminar A.
●Course Content Week 1: Course Overview Week 2: History of the Japanese Diet Week 3: Japanese Legislative Politics Post-1993 Week 4: Student Presentations Week 5: Overview of domestic issues facing contemporary Japan Week 6: Drafting of Bills, Committee Review Week 7: Model Diet, Session 1: Introduction of bills, Position paper presentations, Debate, and Vote Week 8: Model Diet, Session 2: Introduction of bills, Position paper presentations, Debate, and Vote Week 9: Model Diet, Session 3: Introduction of bills, Position paper presentations, Debate, and Vote Week 10: Overview of international issues facing contemporary Japan Week 11: Drafting of Bills, Committee Review Week 12: Model Diet, Session 4: Introduction of bills, Position paper presentations, Debate, and Vote Week 13: Model Diet, Session 5: Introduction of bills, Position paper presentations, Debate, and Vote Week 14: Model Diet, Session 6: Introduction of bills, Position paper presentations, Debate, and Vote Week 15: Final Report Presentations
●Course Evaluation Methods The final grade for the course will be determined according to six categories of assessment, outlined in the paradigm below. Participation (30%) will be assessed according to contributions made during committee work (such as bill drafting) and Model Diet sessions (involvement in discussion and debate). As a member of an assigned committee, each student will be responsible for researching issues, drafting bills, presenting introductions of bills during sessions, and presenting position papers in support of bills introduced by his or her committee. Bills are brief (approximately 250-500 word) pieces of proposed legislation that students will co-author with members of assigned committees. Bill Introductions (20%--2@10% each) are brief (approximately 500-750 word) summaries of bills proposed by one's assigned committees. Position Papers (20%--2@10%) are brief (approximately 500-750 word) essays that present opinions about issues, and argue for or against proposed bills. The presentation (10%) is a brief (approximately seven-minute) presentation about the legislator that you will be role-playing over the course of the semester. The exam (5%) consists of twenty multiple-choice questions about the Japanese Diet and Postwar and Contemporary Japanese Politics. The Final Report (10%) is a brief (500-750 word) report, addressed to one's own constituency, which explains and defends bills that you have proposed and votes that you have cast over the course of the semester. The final reports will be presented on the final day of class.

●Notice for Students

- 1) I am committed to making this course a rewarding academic experience for you, and not simply another "required" course. Please feel free to approach me after class or during my scheduled office hours (TBA) if you have questions about the material, assigned projects, or other, related concerns. If you contact me by e-mail, please allow 24 hours for a reply.
- 2) In the interest of fostering a student-centered learning environment, various teaching methods will be employed in this class. While lecture is one component, there will also be small group discussions and Model Diet sessions, during which students will be expected to share knowledge, insights and opinions about specific issues. Active participation will be key to the learning process and to your success in this course.
- 3) Attendance and punctuality are critical to your success in this course. Please arrive to class on time, and prepared to engage in class discussions and other in-class exercises. Excessive absenteeism and tardiness will result in a reduction of your final grade. Students who miss more than four classes for any reason will receive a grade of "absent".
- 4) Courtesy: In order to create a comfortable learning environment for all, students are expected to observe a few rules of common courtesy in class. Please do not hold private conversations with neighbors during class discussions or lectures. Please turn off mobile phones, portable video game players, and other electronic devices before entering the classroom. If you need to use a computer for note-taking, accessing online readings or viewing of presentations, please be discrete. Students found using computers inappropriately during class will be prohibited from using them for the remainder of the semester.
- 5) Academic Integrity: Students in this course are expected to abide by basic tenets of academic integrity. Cheating is particularly damaging to the learning process because it deprives a student of realizing his or her true potential, compromises the integrity of assessment, and puts honest students at an unfair disadvantage. Any students who have questions about what constitutes academic dishonesty or plagiarism are encouraged to convey them to me without judgment. Any student found guilty of cheating on quizzes or exams in this class, or plagiarism in written assignments, will receive a zero for the assignment in question. Particularly serious breaches of academic integrity may result in a failing grade for the entire course, or possibly even all courses taken in a semester.
- 6) Permission to Enroll in the Course: Students who would like to enroll in the course after the semester has begun should contact me no later than April 27th to express their interest. Permission will be granted to students who have attended at least one of the first three class meetings.

7) Notification of Course Withdrawal: Students who choose to withdraw from the course must submit the required "Course Withdrawal Request Form" by the designated deadline. Failure to submit this form may result in a final grade of "F" for the course.
Textbook	No required textbooks to purchase. All readings will be made available on the first day of class.
