

Nagoya University International Programs for AY2020 Civil and Environmental Engineering Graduate Program (Doctoral Program)

Admission Requirements (October Admission)

Nagoya University invites students to apply for AY2020 admission to the Civil and Environmental Engineering Graduate Program, a Doctoral Degree Program with English as the medium of instruction, according to the terms and conditions below.

Admission Policies

For Nagoya University's general admission policies, please see the following website:

http://kouho-en.adm.nagoya-u.ac.jp/about_nu/declaration/policy/index.html

I. Eligibility for Application

In order to be eligible to apply for Nagoya University's International Programs, the applicant must satisfy one of the following criteria.

1. The applicant has been awarded a master's degree in an educational system(s), in an education institution located in a foreign country, other than the Japanese one, or is expected to be awarded the degree on or before September 30, 2020.
2. The applicant has completed a 12-year curriculum in an educational system(s), in an education institution located in a foreign country, other than the Japanese one, and has earned a master's degree from a graduate school of a Japanese university, or is expected to have earned a master's degree by September 30, 2020.
3. The applicant has earned a master's degree from a graduate school of a Japanese university, or is expected to have earned a master's degree by September 30, 2020; provided that this is limited to persons who have completed (or are expected to complete) their master's degree program in the English language.
4. The applicant is deemed by a Graduate School of Nagoya University to possess academic ability equivalent or superior to that of a master's degree or professional degree holder based on the individual eligibility review.

[Notes]

- (1) Persons wishing to apply under condition 4 of the terms of eligibility above must contact the University, as indicated in the "IX. Contact" section, at least one month prior to the application deadline for each recruitment category and complete the prescribed procedures for eligibility review.

The Graduate School of Engineering and the Graduate School of Environmental Studies at Nagoya University will accept applications from foreign students who wish to pursue a doctoral or master's degree in the field of Civil and Environmental Engineering, with the financial aid of the Japanese Government (Monbu-Kagaku-sho; Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology) Scholarship Program.

Those who seek to apply for the scholarship will have different admission requirements and a different application from the G30 Program.

Detail information about the program can be confirmed in the following website.

II. Requirements for Application

Applicants who have earned a master's degree from a graduate school where the primary language of instruction is not English must satisfy one of the following requirements. However, those applicants who graduate from a university where the primary language of instruction is English, and can submit official documents confirming this fact (e.g. certificate of expected graduation prepared in the format designated by Nagoya University), will be exempt from submitting a certificate showing their English proficiency test score.

- i. TOEFL: minimum score of 80 iBT; 60 Paper-delivered Test
- ii. IELTS: minimum overall band score of 6
- iii. Other evidence showing that the applicant has English proficiency at least equivalent to requirements i or ii above.

<Note> If submitting documents for iii, please consult with your desired advising faculty prior to submitting your application.

III. Number of Available Places

Program (Graduate School)	No. of Places
Civil and Environmental Engineering Graduate Program (Graduate School of Engineering – Graduate School of Environmental Studies)	Limited

[Note] Please write the names of the program and the graduate school of your choice on your Application Form.

IV. Application Procedure

1. Important notes before you apply

Please refer to the tables containing the names of departments, research laboratories/research groups, research areas, research projects and faculty members on the website (<https://admissions.g30.nagoya-u.ac.jp>) and be sure to specify your first and second choice of preferred departments, research laboratories/research groups and supervisors on the Application Form.

Furthermore, the applicant may apply to only one graduate school per application. To apply for both the Graduate School of Engineering and the Graduate School of Environmental Studies, you need to create two different accounts on the online system, submit two sets of documents, and pay two examination fees.

 Inquiries regarding research projects prior to application

The applicant must make a pre-application inquiry regarding research projects to potential supervisors. Please make sure to contact at least one potential supervisor as your first choice.

If the applicant decides to apply to the University based on the information gained through this pre-application inquiry, he/she must submit all application documents (including application fee) to the appropriate address as specified in "Application documents submission" by the prescribed deadline for each recruitment category.

Also, when submitting documents ii, iii, v and x, please make sure to submit original and/or official copies. (Please note: even if you have already submitted documents to your preferred laboratory/supervisor in the course of your pre-application inquiry, those documents may not be deemed to be the formal application documents, and thus cannot be accepted as your application.)

 Other inquiries

For any other inquiries, please contact us via the contact information indicated in "IX. Contact."

2. Application periods

Applicants must submit all the application documents and pay the application fee during the appropriate application period specified in the table below:

(The deadlines below apply to all required documents including those that must be submitted in hard copy.)
