	Documents and Other Materials	Notes
i	Application Form	Please submit the application form via the Nagoya University Online Admissions System.
ii	Bachelor's Degree Diploma (or Prospective Bachelor's Degree Diploma) from Your University (Original Copy)	The diploma or certificate of prospective graduation must include the date of graduation/prospective graduation, the degree to be awarded, and the school's official seal or signature. *Please submit certificates pertaining to your Eligibility for Application. *Applicants applying under "1. Eligibility for Application 3." must, in addition to their certificate of graduation (or prospective graduation), submit a certificate stating that the lectures, etc. of the university in question were conducted principally in English. (No specified format)
	Academic Transcript for Undergraduate Education (Original Copy)	Academic transcripts must include the school's official seal or signature. *Be sure to also submit the grade assessment standards. This is particularly important if (a) your school or institution does not provide a GPA score or (b) your school's GPA system is not based on a 4-point scale.

iii	English Proficiency Test Scores (Original Copy)	Please submit scores that certify your fulfillment of the English proficiency requirement. Make arrangements to have official scores sent directly from the testing institution by the deadline. (The TOEFL institutional code for Nagoya University International Programs is 7256.) *Please note that, in all cases, only the results of tests taken from January 2022 will be considered as valid for the application.
iv	Certified Score Report of the GRE (Original Copy)	Submit a certified score report of the GRE, if available. *Please arrange to have the official scores sent directly from the testing institution and arrive by the application deadline. (The institutional code for Nagoya University International Programs on the GRE is 7256.)
v	Research Plan	Clearly explain the topic, purpose, background, and method of your planned research (approximately 1,000 words in English). Please submit the document via the Nagoya University Online Admissions System.
vi	Two Letters of Reference	The reference letter must be submitted online directly by the referees themselves. Upon entering referee's information on the Online Admissions System, it will automatically send an email to the email address of each referee you listed. Each referee should upload their letter according to instructions given in the email. The letter should be written on the referee's school or institution's letterhead paper, signed by the referee, printed out, scanned, and saved as a PDF file before submission. The email address of the referee that you register for through the Online Admissions System should be their work email address, which means containing a school- or an institution-managed email domain. If no invitation email is delivered to the registered address, please ask your referee to check their spam mail folder. If no invitation letter can be found, then the referee should send their letter (in PDF format) directly to the Admissions Office as an email attachment. The applicant's full name and applicant number starting with 'G' followed by a 6-digit number, must be displayed in the email subject line. Email to: apply@g30.nagoya-u.ac.jp The letter must reach the Admissions Office before the prescribed deadline.
vii	Summary of Undergraduate Graduation Research	If available, please upload a document describing the content of your graduation research to the Online Admissions System.
viii	Documents Showing Other Strengths	If available, please upload these documents to the Online Admissions System.
ix	Document Validating Your Nationality and Residence Status	Please submit the document via the Nagoya University Online Admissions System. This document may be, for example, a copy of the page in your passport showing your name, photo and passport number or a certificate issued by an embassy or consulate in Japan. The certificate should be prepared in English. Attach a translation if it is issued in any other language. If you reside in Japan, you must also submit a copy of your Residence Card.

x	Certificate of Enrollment (Only applicable to Nagoya University students)	Applicants who are research students or are due to graduate from Nagoya University need to upload a scanned copy to the Online Admissions system. Japanese format of the certificate is also accepted.

[Notes]

- 1) Applications will be accepted only if all required documents for application are received by the deadline. It is recommended that you send documents by registered express mail or an equivalent air courier (e.g., Federal Express, DHL, UPS, etc.). Incomplete applications cannot be considered for the selection processes. No changes to any of the documents will be allowed after submission.
- 2) For non-English documents, the document-issuing school or authority must provide a corresponding English translation of the original language. If the school or authority does not provide such a service, the documents must be translated and verified by an outside translation organization and certified to be the same as those issued by the school or authority. Be sure to submit both the original documents and the certified translations.
- 3) For documents (v, vi, vii, viii, ix and x) that are requested to be sent via the Online Application System, no additional hardcopy version is required to be sent via post. Overlapping hard copies sent via post will not be included in the application.
- 4) If a subject title, an evaluation result, or any other information in the certificates requested in items ii and iv above contains codes or abbreviations, an explanation must be attached.
- 5) To calculate the applicant's GPA fairly, the grade assessment standards requested in item ii should include clear evaluation scales (e.g., S=90-100, A=80-89, B=70-79, C=60-69) for both undergraduate and postgraduate courses. If there are no evaluation scales and only raw scores are available, the information of full marks and the lowest raw score to get a course credit are required.
- 6) Application documents submitted will not be returned for any reason. Upon request, however, certain materials that are unable to be reissued may be returned. Please attach a note to this effect if applicable.
- 7) If, after admission, it is discovered that any of the documents have been falsified or that any necessary details or documents have been omitted, admission will be revoked, even if the candidate has already been admitted to the University.
- 8) Applicants will be notified of the receipt of their application documents via the Online Admissions System's messaging function. If you are unable to check your messages, please send a message to the International Admissions Office.
- 9) Applicants to Graduate Program in Linguistics and Cultural Studies who are due to graduate from the Nagoya University School of Letters must submit the documents in i, ii, v, vi, ix, and x above.
- 10) We may contact you directly during the screening regarding Documents and Other Materials.
