III. APPLICATION PROCEDURE

1. IMPORTANT NOTES BEFORE YOU APPLY

(1) Please refer to the 'List of Laboratories' to see departments, research laboratories (research groups), research areas, research projects and faculty members on the website below be sure to specify only first choice of your preferred program, graduate school, and laboratory/research group and supervisor on the Online Application Form.

URL: <https://admissions.g30.nagoya-u.ac.jp/graduate-2/laboratories/>

(2) To avoid applying to the wrong Graduate School, please make sure to check the 'List of Laboratories' published on our website mentioned above to see which Graduate School the supervisor belongs to.

(3) The applicant may apply to only one graduate school per application. To apply to more than one of the programs, you need to create accounts for respective programs on the online admission system, submit a set of documents for each application, and pay application fees, respectively.

IMPORTANT

Inquiries regarding research projects prior to application

The applicant must make a pre-application inquiry regarding research projects to a potential supervisor (supervisors) from whom the applicant wishes to receive supervision for his/her doctoral thesis, before submitting application documents.

If the applicant decides to apply to the University based on the information gained through this pre-application inquiry, he/she must submit all application documents (including application fee) to the appropriate address as specified in "4. Application documents submission" by the prescribed deadline for each admission round.

Please note that even if you have already submitted documents to your preferred laboratory/supervisor when making your pre-application inquiry, those documents may not be deemed to be the formal application documents, and thus cannot be accepted as your application.

Other inquiries

For any other inquiries, please contact us via the Graduate School you are applying to. (See "VIII. Inquiries" below)

2. APPLICATION PERIODS

Application documents and payment of the application fee are accepted during the following periods only.

| Admission Round | Starts | Deadline |

Official and/or Certified copies to be submitted by post

When submitting documents listed below, please make sure to submit official or certified copies.

i. Bachelor's Degree Diploma and Master's Degree Diploma (or Prospective Master's Degree)

The diplomas, or the degree certificates (certificates of prospective graduation) or prospective Master's degree diploma must include the date of graduation/prospective graduation, the degree to be awarded and the school's official seal or signature. A diploma or degree award certificate placed in a diploma folder or cover cannot be accepted. Application documents submitted will not be returned for any reason. It is strongly recommended that applicants submit a "certified copy" instead of a diploma itself. For documents that cannot be reissued (diplomas, etc.), please submit a "certified copy" of the original. For officials for certified copies, please refer to Important notes regarding official and/or certified copies.

*Please submit certificates pertaining to your Eligibility for Application.

ii. Academic Transcript for Undergraduate and Master's Education

Academic transcripts must include the school's official seal or signature.

To calculate the applicant's GPA fairly, be sure to also submit the grade assessment standards that should include clear evaluation scales (e.g., S=90-100, A=80-89, B=70-79, C=60-69). If there are no evaluation scales and only raw scores are available, the information of full marks and the lowest raw score to get a course credit are required.

Important notes regarding official and/or certified copies:

If your official documents do not fall under the following notes 1-4, or for any additional questions, please contact the graduate school to which you are applying for further guidance. Applicants are required to submit an official or a certified copy that is signed or stamped by the issuing institution.

- (1) Any photocopies without a school stamp or the signature of a school official are not accepted as certified copies.
- (2) Any unofficial copies from applicants are not accepted.
- (3) Only the following documents are accepted as certified copies.
 - i) A hard copy sealed or signed by a relevant authority
 - ii) A hard copy certified by a relevant authority to be a true copy
 - iii) A hard copy notarized by public notary
- (4) For non-English documents, the issuing school or authority should provide English translations of all documents written in other languages and certify that the translations are equivalent to the original. If the school or authority does not provide such a service, the documents must be translated and verified by an outside translation organization and certified to be the same as those issued by the school or authority. We do not accept documents that are translated by the applicant themselves. Be sure to submit both the original documents and the certified translations. For any questions, please contact the graduate school to which you are applying to.

Required Documents to be uploaded

The documents listed below are requested to be submitted via the Online Application System. No additional printed version is required to be sent via post. Overlapping hard copies sent via post will not be included in the application.

iii. Application Form

Please apply via the Nagoya University Online Admissions System.

<https://admissions.g30.nagoya-u.ac.jp/admissions/graduateprograms/>

iv. Research Proposal

A proposal for the research you want to pursue in the graduate school (approx. two A4 pages). Please upload the documents to the Online Admission System. Please note that the prospective academic advisor/supervisor may contact you directly during the screening process and ask you further questions about your Research Proposal.

v. Two Letters of Reference

Letters of Reference must be obtained from two referees and be submitted online directly by the referee themselves.

Instructions:

- ① When you enter the referee's information to the system, the referees will receive an automated email message from the Online Admission System.
- ② The email address of the referee that you register with the Online Admission System should be their work email address, which means containing a school- or an institution-managed email domain.
*If the referee does not have an email address that includes his/her institution's domain, please send the original copy in a sealed envelope by mail directly from the referee to the Admissions Office for the G30 International Programs. (Must arrive by the prescribed deadline.)
- ③ The reference letter must be written on the referee's school or institution's letterhead and be signed or stamped by the referee, printed out, scanned, and saved as a PDF file before submission.
- ④ Each referee should upload their letter according to instructions given in the email.

Notes:

- (1) The letter must reach the Admissions Office before the deadline.
- (2) If your referees do not receive the email from the system, please ask them to check their spam box or to send their letter (in PDF format) directly to the Admissions Office by the prescribed deadline. The letter must be sent by their official school email which means containing a school- or an institution-managed email domain. When it is emailed, the applicant's full name and applicant ID must be included in the email subject line as follows:
Title: Reference Letter_Applicant ID_Applicant Name
Email to: g30grad-app@t.mail.nagoya-u.ac.jp
- (3) If the referee does not have an official work email, please ask them to send a hard copy of their letter of reference in a sealed envelope by post directly to the Admissions Office for the G30 International Programs. Please find more instructions about how to send hard copies and the postal address to mail to in the section "4. Application documents submission."

vi. Summary of Master's Thesis

Submit your Master's Thesis if available. Please upload a summary of your Master's Thesis written in English to the Online Admissions System. You must download the designated form from the website and use it.

Form download URL: <https://admissions.g30.nagoya-u.ac.jp>

vii. Major Publications (if available)

Please upload up to three reprints/offprints of your major publications to the Online Admissions System.

viii. Documents Showing Other Strengths (if available)

Please upload these documents to the Online Admissions System.

ix. Document Validating Your Nationality and Residence Status

Please upload the document(s) to the Online Admissions System. This document may be, for example, a copy of your passport or government ID or a certificate issued by an embassy or consulate in Japan. Please attach the English translations of any documents that are written in languages other than English. Foreigners residing in Japan need to submit a copy of the front and back side of their residence card (在留カード) as well.

x. Certificate of Enrollment (Only applicable to Nagoya University students)

Applicants who are research students or are due to graduate from Nagoya University need to upload a scanned copy of their Certificate of Enrollment to the Online Admissions System.

A Japanese version of the certificate is also accepted.

xii. Payment Proof (Only those who paid the fee via bank transfer)

Please upload a receipt which states the time of transfer must be submitted and uploaded on the Online Admission System before the system closes at the deadline.

Important notes for submitting the application documents:

- (1) Applications will only be accepted if all required documents are successfully uploaded to the Online Admission System by the deadline. If the required documents are incomplete, your application will not be accepted. No changes in any of the documents will be allowed after submission deadline.
- (2) Application documents that arrive after the submission deadline will not be accepted.
- (3) Official hard copies can be submitted before the application period.
- (4) If any abbreviation or code is used in the certificates requested in items such as academic transcripts, an explanation note must be attached.
- (5) As a general principle, the submitted application documents, including original documents will not be returned.
- (6) If, after admission, it is discovered that any of the documents have been falsified or that any necessary details or documents have been omitted, admission will be revoked even in the event that the candidate have already been admitted to the University.
- (7) Please check the online admission system message function regularly. We will contact you if there are any missing documents. If you are unable to check your messages, please send an email to the International Admissions Office.

5. APPLICANTS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

Applicants with physical or mental disabilities, who require special support during the screening process, should consult Nagoya University before submitting their application (application documents must be prepared in English) as follows:

- (1) Consultation period: Until December 5, 2024
- (2) Contact for consultation: Admissions Office for the G30 International Programs, Nagoya University
- (3) Consultation Procedure:

Applicants must submit the three documents listed below. If necessary, the applicant or a representative of the school from which the applicant graduated or will graduate who can speak for the applicant will be interviewed by Nagoya University.

 - 1) A document stating the program to be applied for, the desired major, the nature of the applicant's special needs, the arrangements desired for examinations, and the applicant's contact details. (A4 (or letter size) paper. Any format may be used.)
 - 2) A medical certificate or a social worker's report concerning the applicant's special needs (copies are acceptable in both cases), or a copy of a disability certificate or equivalent document.
 - 3) A supplementary report by the person concerned from the applicant's school (a free-format report prepared on A4 size paper, describing the applicant's learning and life at the school and details of learning support provided by the school, etc.).

Please use A4 (or letter size) paper. Any format may be used.
- (4) Other:

If there are any inquiries regarding the admissions process or student life after enrollment, please contact the Admissions Office for the International Programs by the application deadline.

IV. SELECTION METHOD

Selection of a successful applicant consists of a document screening and an oral examination. (The oral examination will include a presentation on the applicant's master's thesis or published papers equivalent to the thesis, and an oral examination. If the applicant does not reside in Japan, the oral examination will, as a rule, be conducted using a VoIP system on the Internet such as Zoom, etc.) Results of the document screening will be announced via e-mail by the graduate school you applied to. Applicants who successfully pass the document screening will also be informed via e-mail of the date of the second (oral examination) screening by the graduate school you applied to.

V. ANNOUNCEMENT OF ADMISSION RESULTS

Admission results will be announced by the graduate school for which you applied via e-mail indicated on your Application Form by the date shown as the "Announcement Date of Admission Results" in the table below. Waitlisted applicants will be separately notified by e-mail. Admitted students may also verify their results by logging in to the Online Admissions System.

| Admission Round | Announcement Date of Admission Results |

Applicants who have not yet been awarded a master's degree at the time of application must ensure that their master's degree certificates and academic transcripts are sent to the University by August 1, 2025.

Please note: if you are unable to submit the certificate by the above deadline, you must contact us in advance via the contact information indicated in "VIII. Inquiries."

VII. OTHER

1. All personal information submitted to Nagoya University is managed in compliance with the "Act on the Protection of Personal Information Held by Independent Administrative Agencies, etc." and the "Tokai National Higher Education and Research System Rules on the Protection of Personal Information."
2. Personal Information related to the applicant, such as name, address, date of birth, etc., will be used only for the purposes of admissions, announcement of results, enrollment procedures, and related matters.
3. Personal Information related to the applicant admissions evaluation results will be used to improve future selection procedures. Furthermore, the personal details of applicants admitted to Nagoya University will be used for i) academic affairs (student registration, academic advising, etc.), ii) student welfare services (health care, career services, tuition exemption, scholarship applications, etc.), and iii) tuition fee payment.
4. All times and dates indicated in the Admission Requirements refer to Japan Standard Time (UTC+09).
5. Nagoya University has established the "Security Export Control Regulations for Tokai National Higher Education and Research System" in accordance with Japan's "Foreign Exchange Trade Act." The Security Export Control Office provides guidance and rigorously conducts necessary procedures when we accept international students. Since November 2021, it has been clarified that the 'deemed export control' is also regulated and controlled by the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act ("FEFTA"), and thus transfer of controlled information, technology, software, and data to anyone even within the territory of Japan is also subject to the FEFTA. As such, to comply with export control regulations, each applicant must submit the 'self-declaration' form (known as 'Declaration of Applicable Specific Categories') through the Online Application System (<https://admissions.g30.nagoya-u.ac.jp>). In addition, some of those admitted might be required to submit the Pledge Form regarding export control compliance, as part of enrollment procedures. Moreover, your research might be regulated if it involves export controlled or restricted activities.
