

Naranzaya Batdulam

Graduate of the Nagoya University G30 Law Program

Current Position:

International Visiting Advisor

Foley Hoag, International Litigation and Arbitration Department, NY & Washington D.C.

2024-present

Education:

Shine Mongol High School

Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia

2015-2018

Bachelor of Laws

G30 Law Program, Nagoya University

2018-2022

Master of Laws in International Dispute Settlement

University of Geneva & Graduate Institute of Geneva, Switzerland

2022-2023

Master of Laws in International Business & Economic Law

Georgetown University, United States

2023-2024

Striking outcomes while at Nagoya University:

Awards and Prizes:

Hattori International Scholarship

2019-2022

Monbugakusho Honors Scholarship

2018-2019

Internships and experiences:

Organizer, TEDxNagoyaU

2018-2019

Summer Intern, Nishimur Asahi

Summer 2021

Legal Intern, The Office of the President of Mongolia

Summer - Fall 2021

Participant, William C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot

2021-2022

Head of Publicity, Nagoya University International Students Organization

2021-2022

Secretary General, Nagoya University Model United Nations

2022

Part-time Communications Coordinator, G30 Admissions Office

Spring - Fall 2022

Tutor, NUEMI

2019-2022

Striking outcomes after Nagoya University:

University of Geneva Scholarship

2022-2023

Georgetown Law Merits Scholarship

2023-2024

A Message of Encouragement for Future G30 Students:

During my time at Nagoya University, I discovered an environment that fostered both personal and academic development. The G30 program, with its close-knit community and rich academic resources, helped me build a strong foundation for my future career. I hope your experience at Nagoya University will be as transformative and rewarding as mine has been.